I. 次の英文を読み、設問（1～5）に答えなさい。

Being sick or injured while traveling abroad can be worrying. The medical system is unfamiliar, and you may [to / it / communicate / difficult / find] with doctors and nurses. Unfortunately, because (ア) stress, changes in climate, food, etc., it is easy to get sick.

If you are taking medicine in Japan, take enough medicine with you for the entire trip. You might also take along cold medicine and other common medicines. Though these are easy to get in the U.S., you may feel more comfortable (イ) familiar brands. You should also take spare glasses or contacts and prescriptions*¹ for your glasses or contacts.

In most cases, you cannot use your Japanese health insurance*² overseas. You must get travel insurance. Since travel insurance does not generally include dentists, you should get any problems with your teeth treated at least ten days before you leave.

In the U.S., you generally need an appointment to see a doctor. If you are at a hotel, the clerk will usually have information about local doctors and can help you arrange an appointment. You can ask the doctor to send the bill to your travel insurance company. If that is not possible, he/she will fill (ウ) your insurance form. You pay the doctor and get a receipt, and your insurance company will pay you back.

Traveling can be tiring, so you should not expect to do as much as you can in Japan. Try to relax and get enough rest, and that will help you avoid health problems.

(注) prescription(s)*¹ : 処方箋 insurance*² : 保険
